It spread rapidly and burned fiercely during the afternoon and ket night. It is still burning and will probably continue for some days. The fire is burning in a fine body of red pine timber, which will be totally destroyed.

The burning timber presented a beautiful spectacle last night just after dark. The fire had started at the foot of a very steep mountain in the lefthand fork of Cottonwood canyon, and the trees were blazing up the entire side of the mountain. LADIES APPOINTED.

Fair Sex Recognized by the Wasatch County Commissioners.

'(Special Correspondence.)
Heber, July 7.—At the meeting of county Heber, July 7.—At the meeting of county commissioners registration officers were appointed. From some of the precincts which went Democratic at the last election ladies were recommended for the positions and were appointed by the commissioners. The appointing of lady registration officers seems to meet the approval of the people in the precincts where such appointments have been made.

The ladies of the county in the past have been prominent factors in campaign and election work, and are certainly deserving of the recognition shown them.

The nominations at Kansas City meet the hearty approval of the Democrats of this county. All who have thus far been interviewed say the ticket is a sure winner.

The following is the list of registration officers appointed:

JOHNSTON ACQUITTED.

Brigham City, July 7.—in the district court, in the case of the state of Utah vs. William Johnston, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. Since 1883 Johnston has been in the courts about twenty times, but has only been convicted on two charges, kidnaping a boy and shooting a horse.

In this particular case he was charged with firing two shorts at D. P. Tarpey, manager of the Toltec Ranch company, and his son John, a young man of 18 years.

Johnston claims that it was Mr. Tarpey that shot at him when he ordered them off from his property. The jurors in giving their verdict were actuated by sympathy for the old man, the first ballot showing seven for acquittal and one for conviction.
